The pro se plaintiff, Brian Sharp, brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 claiming deliberate indifference and excessive force relating to an incident when the defendant allegedly maced the plaintiff in his prison cell.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a thorough Report and Recommendation and opines that the complaint fails to establish a claim for excessive force, and thus, the defendants' motion for summary judgment² should be granted. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation.

² An order was issued pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) notifying plaintiff of the summary dismissal procedure and possible consequences if he failed to adequately respond to the motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff responded to the motion.

The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on January 7, 2011. However, the plaintiff failed to file objections. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

After carefully reviewing the applicable laws, the record in this case, and the Report and Recommendation, this court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation fairly and accurately summarizes the facts and applies the correct principles of law. The Report is incorporated herein by reference

Accordingly, the defendants' motion for summary judgment (ECF No. 32) is granted and this action is dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
